SUPERVISOR LOCKYER TO HOST NILES/FREMONT TOWN HALL TONIGHT

For Immediate Release

Thursday, March 24, 2011

Contact: Christine Gasparac at (510) 272-6692

Alameda County Supervisor Nadia Lockyer will host a town hall meeting tonight on “breaking down the disconnect” between county departments and residents. Speakers include Susan Muranishi, Alameda County Administrator, who will give an overview of county services; Ron Thomsen, Alameda County Assessor, who will discuss the property tax reassessment process; and Caltrans Division Chief Mark Zabaneh, who will give an update on the Mission Blvd/Route 238 construction.

The event is free and open to the public. At the end of the meeting, Supervisor Lockyer will hold a raffle to win four luxury box tickets to an Oakland A’s game this summer.
