

WENDY STILL

WHEREAS, the Alameda County Board of Supervisors wishes to recognize Wendy Still for her distinguished career as she retires after almost 40+ years of prison administration experience, and California local and state government, specializing in juvenile and adult community corrections and reentry systems; and

WHEREAS, Wendy Still started her executive career in community corrections in 1990 as the Acting Chief Deputy Warden Correctional Administrator for California State Prisons - Solano, Folsom and Wasco; and

WHEREAS, Wendy Still in 2010 became Chief Probation Officer over the Adult population at the San Francisco Probation Department for five years before she became Chief Probation Officer for the Adult and Juvenile Divisions for the Alameda County Probation Department in 2016; and

WHEREAS, Wendy Still while at Alameda County, has implemented Criminal Justice Realignment (AB109), developing gender responsive trauma-informed offender prison and community rehabilitation programs, and reducing recidivism for California's prison, probation, and reentry populations. She has also implemented innovative programs for homeless, pretrial, mental health, Substance Use Disorder, dually diagnosed, and justice involved juveniles and adults.; and

WHEREAS, Wendy Still has also served as a subject matter expert consultant for the California Federal Prison Health Care Services, Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, the Department of Homeland Security – Office of Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, and as a Criminologist; and

WHEREAS, Wendy Still's commitment to excellence and dedication to the work of the Board of Supervisors, the County Administrator's Office, and Alameda County will be missed by colleagues countywide and beyond who consider it a privilege to have worked with her. She is a true reformer of correctional and justice policies and practices to increase the success of justice involved people; and

NOW, THEREFORE, this Board of Supervisors, County of Alameda, State of California does hereby commend Wendy Still and extends their heartfelt thanks and appreciation for her dedication and exceptional service to Alameda County and its residents and wishes Wendy Still happiness and good health in her retirement.
