UNITY SKATEBOARDS

2018 LGBTQIA+ PRIDE MONTH RECOGNITION

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors honors Unity Skateboards as Alameda County's LGBTQIA+ Pride Month Honoree.

We commend Jeffrey Cheung, an artists and a zine master and Gabriel Ramirez, the founders of Unity Skateboards for their extraordinary commitment to support the LGBTQIA+ community by creating a safe and empowering space for queer people to skate and/or learn how to skate that provides a welcoming environment for all. In addition, Unity Skateboards helps to amplify the work of other local artists and musicians in the community.

We thank Unity Skateboards for their dedication and passion to uplift our communities and for their commitment to enhance the quality of life for all residents of Alameda County.

We wish Unity Skateboards continued success well into the future.

JEWISH FAMILY & COMMUNITY SERVICES EAST BAY
LGBT REFUGEE SERVICES
2018 LGBTQIA+ PRIDE MONTH RECOGNITION

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors honors the Jewish Family and Community Services East Bay's LGBTQ Refugee Services as Alameda County's LGBTQIA+ Pride Month Honoree.

We commend the Jewish Family and Community Services East Bay's LGBTQ Refugee Services program's extraordinary commitment to support resettling lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex refugees. Their focus on the LGBTQ refugee community acknowledges the additional barriers and even persecutions faced by such refugees. They provide a myriad of services to LGBTQ refugees including assistance with the migration process, transitional housing, enrollment in benefit programs, counseling and mental health services through their bi-lingual and multi-cultural staff members.

We thank the Jewish Family and Community Services East Bay's LGBTQ Refugee Services program for their work that plays a pivotal role in uplifting our communities and for their commitment to enhance the quality of life for all residents of Alameda County.

We wish Jewish Family and Community Services East Bay's LGBTQ Refugee Services continued success well into the future.
