

In Honor of Neisha Becton, M.A.

WHEREAS, the Alameda County Board of Supervisors congratulates and applauds the tremendous service of Neisha Becton, as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Becton Healthcare Resources (BHR); and

WHEREAS, Neisha Becton has built an impressive record of achievement and performance as the President/CEO of Becton Healthcare Resources with over a decade of experience providing healthcare management services to medical groups, hospitals, regional centers and community health care organizations; and

WHEREAS, Neisha Becton is a compassionate and determined voice for healthcare with a focused effort on implementing and delivering innovative systems and services amongst an ever-evolving healthcare industry; and

WHEREAS, under Ms. Becton's tremendous leadership, BHR continues to meet the growing mental health needs and disparities particularly within the Tri-Valley region, through partnerships with various groups to facilitate each patient's ability to return or remain in the community and to ensure that services are provided with the utmost respect to the individual; and

WHEREAS, BHR's overall goal is to make a significant positive contribution to quality health care within the communities they serve while paying particular attention to client's cultural needs; and

WHEREAS, prior to founding Becton Healthcare Resources, Neisha Becton joined Psychiatric Management Resources, a large national provider of services for individuals with serious and persistent mental illnesses, and advanced through operations and marketing to the post of regional vice president; and

WHEREAS, Neisha Becton is a nationally recognized leader in her field and has received numerous awards, including Outstanding African-American Entrepreneur Award and the Community Service Award from the Alameda County Mental Health Board, Outstanding Leadership Award, National Leadership Award and Business Women of the Year Award; and

WHEREAS, as a fierce champion for vulnerable populations, Neisha Becton remains deeply engaged with the community and has been a tireless champion of numerous non-profit and philanthropic efforts to uplift those struggling with mental illness; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, on this third day of August, 2021, that this Board of Supervisors, County of Alameda, State of California, does hereby commend Neisha Becton for her commitment to providing superior services to people suffering from mental illness and for her outstanding advocacy towards mental health awareness for under-served populations.
