

Alameda County Supervisors Nate Miley and Scott Haggerty and
Alameda County Citizens for Seniors and Persons with Disabilities

REPAIRING CALIFORNIA

*An Alameda County Town Hall Meeting on a California Constitutional Convention
Thursday, September 17, 2009, 9:30 am to 12:30 pm
Alameda County Administration Building, 1221 Oak Street, Board of Supervisors Chambers, Fifth Floor, Oakland, CA 94612*

Moderated by Nate Miley

9:30 Opening Remarks

Nate Miley, Alameda County Supervisor, District Four (5 minutes)
Scott Haggerty, Alameda County Supervisor, District One (5 minutes)

9:40 Introduction to a Constitutional Convention

Jim Wunderman, President & CEO, Bay Area Council (15 minutes)

9:55 The Need for Reform: An Alameda County Perspective (5 minutes each/10 minutes Q&A)

Susan Muranishi, Alameda County Administrator
Wendy Peterson, Alameda County Senior Services Coalition
Tracy Jensen, Alameda School Board
Corey Cook, USF Political Science Professor
10 minutes of Q&A

10:25 The Different Paths to Reform in California (10 minutes each)

Fred Keeley, California Forward & the Governor's Commission on the 21st Century Economy
John Grubb, Repair California
Highlight approaches, distinguish between two approaches

10:45 Selecting Delegates to a Constitutional Convention (10 minutes)

Steven Hill, Director of the Political Reform Program, New America Foundation

10:55 Town Hall Q&A with Audience

12:00 Concluding Remarks

Scott Haggerty
Nate Miley

Adjourn