San Lorenzo, CA 94580

SUMMARY ACTION MINUTES

I. Public Comment

Dorothy Partridge: Read in the District 3 newsletter about the street improvements in the industrial area. Are there any plans to repave Grant Avenue?

Wulf Bieschke: Phil Avenue was paved, however, Oakland Pallet Company is building a new building and they have dug into the new paving already. He would appreciate someone looking into that.

Mary Cedarholm: Could someone do something about the sidewalks on Grant Avenue? Concerned about the Bay tree that has been chopped off the top across from San Lorenzo High School.

Nancy Van Huffel: Why isn't the Bicycle Ordinance being heard at tonight's meeting?
SupNM:

Suzanne Barba: Request a presentation on Measure F implementation; Cull Canyon. Zone 2, and foreclosures in unincorporated area.

Betty Moose: Friends of the Library would like to address library funding at a future meeting; 2) The San Lorenzo Heritage Society is concerned about the Bay Tree (across from San Lorenzo High School)

Supervisor's Comments

Supervisor Lai-Bitker: Will schedule the San Lorenzo Library funding at a future meeting.

Supervisor Nate Miley: The Bike Ordinance does not affect this part of the unincorporated area, only Castro Valley and East County where bike events are held in those rural areas.

II. Eden Area Livability Initiative Implementation Process

Supervisor Nate Miley, District 4, gave a report on the Eden Area Livability Initiative. The next meeting for the EALI will be July 24, 2008 – Joint Leadership Committee on Livability - Thursday July 24, 2008 @6:30 p.m. at Eden Church.

III. Smoking Ordinance Update Public Health Department

Janice Louie, Public Health Department, and Serena Chen, American Lung Association, regarding second hand smoke and to modify the current county ordinance to decrease exposure of second hand smoke to Alameda County residents and visitors.

IV. Anti-Fireworks enforcement and education –

Fire Chief Sheldon Gilbert, introduced Deputy Chief Randy Bradley, Aisha Knowels, Community Outreach Officer, PIO, and Fire Marshal Bonnie Terra who spoke about fireworks education and prevention regarding activities on the 4th of July weekend.

IV. Anti-Fireworks enforcement and education –(continued)

Alameda County has a zero tolerance for all fireworks in Alameda County. Public Works puts up signs so people can understand that fireworks are not allowed in the unincorporated Alameda County. Fire and Sheriff's Department personnel will be out to enforce the zero tolerance policy.

V. Grove Way Mural Painting and Creek Ecology Project – Congregations Organizing for Rene

This item was continued to July 23, 2008.
