

Need legal help?

Lawyer Referral Service

The LRS has been the trusted source for lawyer referrals in Alameda County for more than 40 years, and is regulated and certified by the State Bar of California. For a $35 fee, we match you with an attorney qualified to help you with your legal issue for a 30 minute consultation. All LRS attorneys are rigorously screened for their experience, knowledge, and professionalism.

Areas of law include:

- Bankruptcy
- Business
- Criminal
- Employment
- Immigration
- Personal Injury
- Wills & Trusts
- Worker's Compensation

Volunteer Legal Services Corporation

VLSC provides free, direct legal assistance to low-income clients with cases in Alameda County. VLSC mobilizes volunteer attorneys, paralegals, and law school graduates to provide pro bono legal services at more than 40 monthly clinics for self-represented litigants.

Clinic areas include:

- Bankruptcy
- Domestic Violence Restraining Orders
- Family Law
- Guardianship
- Low-Income Landlords & Unlawful Detainer Mediation

For both the LRS and VLSC, call our Intake Line at (510) 302-2222, Option 4. Intake hours are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.– Noon; 1– 4 p.m.