

PG&E is Hiring Pre-Apprentice Lineworkers

Pacific Gas and Electric Company is again preparing to hire Pre-Apprentice Lineman workers across our service territory this month. New open positions will be posted to www.pge.com/careers <<http://www.pge.com/careers>> on June 27 through July 2, 2012. Please note that this posting will remain online for five days only.

Please help us inform and identify qualified candidates by sharing this hiring news throughout your various networks and communication channels. See below for details.

The Pre-Apprentice Lineman job (see partial job description below) is covered under a bargaining agreement with IBEW Local 1245. Wages start at $23.12/hour, plus comprehensive benefits. Successful completion of this 12 month job will lead to a 36-month apprenticeship to achieve journey-level Lineman status.

How to Apply: Candidates should APPLY and COMPLETE A PROFILE at www.pge.com/careers <<http://www.pge.com/careers>> . If you are interested in more than one job, you must apply separately to each posting. To receive notification about new postings as they become available, be sure to sign up for email notification when creating your profile.

Job Description (partial): Electric Pre-Apprentice Lineman

An Electric Pre-Apprentice Lineman's principle duties include learning pre-requisite skills and knowledge for becoming an Apprentice Lineman. As a Pre-Apprentice, you will be required to attend and successfully complete the Pre-Apprenticeship Program, which includes formal training and assessments. You will also be required to achieve a set of on-the-job training objectives. During the Pre-Apprenticeship Program, employees must pass training courses that include but are not limited to the following:

- * Climb utility poles and steel structures
- * Basic Electricity and Protective grounding principles
- * Basic Rigging and other physical skills requirements
- * Attend Class "A" driving school and obtain a Class "A" Driver's License (must obtain Class "A" Driver's Permit by month 3 and License after month 6 and before the end of the successful completion of the Pre-Apprentice Lineman program)

Employees in this position will complete a 12-month probationary period. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, Pre-Apprentice Lineman will become an Apprentice Lineman and will begin the formal program toward becoming a Journeyman Lineman.

About PG&E: Pacific Gas and Electric Company is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer that actively pursues and hires a diverse workforce. Women, minorities, individuals with disabilities and covered veterans are encouraged to apply. We also promote a drug-free work environment. PG&E offers a comprehensive benefits package including medical/dental/vision coverage, flexible spending accounts, disability benefits, tuition reimbursement, company matching 401(k), retiree pension and medical/life insurance coverage, and much more.

PG&E refers to Pacific Gas and Electric Company, a subsidiary of PG&E Corporation. © 2011 Pacific Gas and Electric Company. All rights reserved.