A. Housing Element – Ms. Asche introduced staff planner, Rodrigo Orduna, who presented the staff report/Initial Study (IS) on the Housing Element. The Initial Study is looking at density adjustments to various districts to allow different levels of units and the other component is emergency homeless shelters, which is now proposed to be limited to R-4 Districts only. There are no specific projects currently and an environmental review work will be required on all future projects. Commissioner Machado indicated her concerns that this was again being referred late to this Commission and suggested adding standards.

Staff explained the Commission's role adding that she could check with the surrounding jurisdictions and Commissioner Wyrick-Parkinson suggested that the IS reflect that each project have a PRHC review and if preservation is recommended, the original façade be saved. The Chair felt that since the Commission did not have an Ordinance in place, a policy on the role of the Commission be included in the IS including any mitigation measures. A discussion followed on options. Commissioner Machado recommended adding "...and/or the improvements are 50 years old" after historic resource. Regardless of the assessment of the historian, any building over 50 years be referred to this Commission and the Planning Department shall require a detailed historic and architectural assessment to be conducted. In reference to specific standards, the Chair stated that staff will research other jurisdictions and present a recommendation. Commissioner Faltings made a motion to move the above recommendations and Commissioner Sadoff seconded. Commissioner Wyrick-Parkinson disagreed adding that the specific mitigation measures should be included in the motion. Staff suggested adding that for sites that are found historically significant, the County shall work with PRHC on reasonable mitigation measures to reduce significant impacts. The initial motion and second was amended to reflect this. Motion carried unanimously.
