

FEMA

Disaster Recovery Centers Open in Alameda County

If you are an Alameda County resident and if you, your home, or your business experienced damage or losses from the winter rain storms earlier this year, you may be eligible for federal, state, or county assistance.

Come in person to one of two Disaster Recovery Centers to sign up.

Date: Friday, February 10 - Friday, February 24, 2023
Time: 10 a.m.-7 p.m.
Location 1: 7001 Oakport Street, Oakland, CA
Location 2: 4825 Gleason Drive, Dublin, CA

Translation services available.

Have this information with you:

- Social Security or Tax ID Number
- Address of damaged home
- Current phone number
- Address where you can get mail or email notifications
- Insurance information, if available
- Bank account and routing number to receive direct deposit of funds

Examples of available onsite assistance/resources:

- Medical, dental, or transportation
- Emergency food and housing
- Home repairs
- Property loss
- SBA loans
- Tax relief

And more!