

The Housing Authority of the County of Alameda (HACA) will be opening its Public Housing waiting list for one-bedroom units only. HACA has 100 one-bedroom units, all located in the city of Union City. All 100 units are designated for the elderly and disabled. THIS IS NOT AN OPENING OF THE SECTION 8 WAITING LIST.

This lottery is ONLY for one bedroom, elderly/disabled units owned by the Alameda County Housing Authority. These units are located at 4131-4183 Dyer Street and 2000-2052 Nidus Court in Union City, CA. Some units have accessibility features. HACA will conduct a lottery from among those pre-applications submitted timely to create a wait list of 300 applicants.

Any pre-applications not postmarked between November 2 and November 6, 2009 will be rejected and will not be processed. You will be notified by mailed postcard if you have won or lost the lottery.

To find out who may apply and where to get a pre-application, please contact Jennifer Cado at 510-727-8514 or Jenniferc@haca.net.

NOTE: Pre-applications must be mailed to the address listed on the pre-application. Pre-applications hand delivered will not be processed or be eligible. DO NOT mail pre-applications to the Housing Authority's office. Any pre-applications mailed to the Housing Authority will not be processed or be eligible.
