EARLY BALLOT PICKUP
NOVEMBER 8, 2016 GENERAL ELECTION

All polling places in Alameda County will receive early ballot pickup on Election Day starting at 5:30 p.m. by ballot transport teams designated by Alameda County Registrar of Voters. Each team will utilize an Alameda County issued vehicle. All team members will be wearing an Alameda County Registrar of Voters shirt with a logo on the front and the word "ROVER" printed on the back. Each person on the ballot transport team will possess additional identification.

Upon arrival at the selected precincts, ballot transport teams will report directly to the polling place Inspector to identify themselves. Team members, under poll worker supervision, will access the tamper evident-sealed ballot trollies and retrieve the ballots casted. After ballot accountability and proper chain-of-custody paperwork has been completed, the ballots are delivered to the Registrar of Voters for processing.

The Alameda County Registrar of Voters is located at:

1225 Fallon Street, Room G-1
Oakland, CA 94612
