NOMINATIONS DEADLINE FOR 20TH ANNUAL ALAMEDA COUNTY WOMEN'S HALL OF FAME EXTENDED ONE WEEK

The deadline to nominate an outstanding woman to the Alameda County Women's Hall of Fame has been extended one week – to Friday December 14 – as organizers gear up to host a special event to commemorate the program's 20th Anniversary.

The Alameda County Women's Hall of Fame's 20th Anniversary celebration will take place in March 2013. The program will continue its commitment to honoring extraordinary women leaders – from trailblazers to unsung heroes – who serve the Alameda County community with passion and purpose, making a positive impact on the lives of others. The event raises funds for local organizations advancing social well-being and is a beacon of empowerment and inspiration for tomorrow's leaders.

Nominations are being accepted for outstanding women in 12 categories: Business and Professions; Community Service; Culture and Art; Education; Environment; Health; Justice; Non-Traditional Careers; Science; Sports and Athletics; Philanthropy and Youth. Apply online at <http://acgov.org/cao/halloffame/>.

The 20th Annual Alameda County Women's Hall of Fame luncheon and awards ceremony will be held Saturday, March 23, 2013, at the Greek Orthodox Cathedral on Lincoln Avenue in Oakland. The event will be hosted by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors and the Alameda County Commission on the Status of Women.

For more information about the event, go to <http://acgov.org/cao/halloffame/> or call (510) 272-6510.
