The Alameda County Registrar of Voters Office released updated election results early Tuesday morning after staff members worked late into the night processing ballots from the November 4 General Election.

Registrar of Voters Tim Dupuis said County elections staff was not able to complete all ballot processing. Election workers have been given the day off Tuesday to enjoy the Veteran's Day holiday and will resume ballot processing at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday.

The latest results show that Alameda County has counted ballots submitted by 362,813 voters.

The next update of Alameda County's election results will be posted to the Registrar's website, <http://www.acgov.org/rov/>, on Wednesday.

Under State law, Alameda County has until December 2 to certify its election results.
