About the Schreiber Center

The Schreiber Center was named in honor of Drs. Mary Lu and Robert Schreiber, two well respected psychiatrists who provided services to thousands of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Alameda County. The Center is a specialty mental health clinic for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities served by the Regional Center of the East Bay. The Schreiber Center was developed through a collaboration of Alameda County Behavioral Health, Public Health, and Regional Center of the East Bay. The Schreiber Center is funded by Alameda County Behavioral Health Care Services through the Mental Health Services Act (Prop 63).
