

REENTRY & JUSTICE PROGRAMS

BOSS offers a range of programs and services to help justice-involved people reintegrate into the community, find permanent homes, reconnect with family, and form healthier relationships. BOSS is dedicated to reinvesting in our target neighborhoods, with 90 percent of the employees of our Neighborhood Safety and Reentry services having firsthand knowledge from lived experience.

Social Justice Collective Fellowship

The BOSS Social Justice Collective (SJC) Fellowship encourages greater participation in civic and political processes by justice involved individuals.

Warm Hand Off

The BOSS Warm Hand Off (WHO) program provides case management services intended to assist justice-involved individuals in obtaining resources needed to address barriers to personal self-sufficiency.

For Us By Us (FUBU)

Peer Support & Linkages

FUBU works to reconnect justice involved individuals who are disengaged from services by providing peer support to guide them through the process of accessing needed services. These services include: case management & care coordination, education, employment, housing, substance abuse, health care, and family reunification to promote successful reentry and reintegration.

Rental Assistance

The Rental Assistance program serves system-impacted individuals with one-time assistance to help with financial needs related to housing including move-in costs, back rent, and utilities.

CEO has immediate job openings for individuals with recent justice-system involvement in Oakland.

Funding provided by USDA. USDA is an Equal Opportunity Provider, Employer, and Lender.

CEO can help you get and keep a job.

Connect with your parole or probation officer

If you are under community supervision, request a referral form to CEO; we also accept walk-ins and will assist with obtaining a referral. Please call us at (510) 251-2240 to schedule yourself for the next available orientation at our office.

Attend orientation and get to work

You will enroll in a paid orientation led by seasoned instructors to ensure you are ready for work and our program. Upon completion, you will begin your new job on CEO's transitional work crews. This part-time job is paid daily—not many employers offer that perk!

Find a full-time job

While working for CEO, you'll have access to a variety of free training opportunities and be assigned a job coach who will help prepare you for full-time work. CEO will also conduct outreach to local businesses on your behalf with the goal of finding you a full-time job. If hired, CEO will provide continued support for up to a year of your full-time employment.

Job-Readiness Training

We prepare people for success in the workplace.
