Updates

- Children & Family Services is working on a project to strengthen the internal response for CSEC youth.
- Programs that work with CSEC youth were identified.

REPORT-OUT on Claire's House – Christopher Martinez

- Applied for the STRTP license and was awarded a provisional license.
- Narrow criteria and COVID pandemic presented obstacles that resulted in the program being paused.
- They returned their license and will apply for a new license to re-open in the next few weeks.

AGENDA

DISCUSSION

ACTION NEEDED

Has Claire's House ever served youth?

No, they never received any placements. The program required youth to be stable prior to placement.

Does Claire's House have an advisory committee of community experts established?

They had an advisory committee comprised of stakeholders in the past that was disbanded once they obtained their provisional license and opened for placement. They are looking to re-establish the advisory committee.

Is Claire's House working with former CSEC survivors?

They have in the past and will incorporate some level of that into their program statement.
