

LWVO VOTER EDUCATION RESOURCES FOR NOVEMBER 3, 2020 GENERAL ELECTION

League presentations and Train the Trainer training:

For voter registration: League members can provide virtual training on how to register to vote. Members of your organization who attend this training will learn how to register voters and/or train others in the organization how to do it.

Contact: Peggy Graybill: graybip@fastmail.com or Carmen Murray: carmengm@lmi.net

For Pros and cons of ballot measures. The League offers virtual training on how to present the pros and cons of ballot measures. Members of your organization are welcome to attend the training sessions, held in September, and then present the pros and cons of the ballot measures to others in your organization. Alternatively, your organization can request a League member to present the pros and cons to your staff and clients.

Contact: Helen Neville at lwwvoterservice@gmail.com or 510-655-2796 to join a training session. Allene Warren at lwwvoterservice@gmail.com to request a League presentation.

Candidate Forums.

The LWVO will hold virtual candidate forums in Sept.-Oct. to give candidates a chance to present their views. The League is a non-partisan organization and does not endorse or oppose candidates. Contact: Pat Raburn at patraburn@gmail.com or 510-967-5977 in September to find out where to see the virtual forums.

Printed materials

Voters Edge is a free League online resource for information about candidates and measures and who finances them. Go to www.votersedge.org/ca

Easy Voter Guides

- state guides. explain the state propositions in clear, easy-to-understand language. To order a supply of printed guides go to : <http://www.easyvoterguide.org>.
- Local guides. LWVO League members will contact organizations in July 2020 to take orders for the Local Guides that have City of Oakland candidates and measures.

Reentry flier – explains the voting rights of people reentering the community from incarceration.

Your vote Matters flier – Colorful cartoon flier explains why voting is important.

Tip Sheets: Tips for voting by mail and Tips for making sure your vote will count– League-developed tips for voting by mail and for marking the ballot correctly. Will be available in the Voter's Toolbox on the Oakland League of Voters website: www.lwvoakland.org.