OUT-OF-HOME PLACEMENT SUMMARY--May 2009

The Placement Unit carries out the order of the Court removing the custody of a child from his or her parents or legal guardians and placing the child safely out of home "only when his/her welfare or safety and protection of the public cannot be adequately safeguarded without removal" (Section 602 W&i Code).

Camp Wilmont Sweeney is a local alternative to Group Home placements. Out-of-home Placement and Camp Sweeney both have two fundamental goals for minors: Rehabilitation and Reunification/Emancipation.

CAMP WILMONT SWEENEY ADMISSIONS BY ETHNICITY MAY 2009

Camp Sweeney is a residential treatment program for male youth who are ordered by the Juvenile Court to be committed to the Camp to complete a six to nine month rehabilitation and educational program. After completion of the in-camp program minors graduate to after-care furlough supervision services for a six-month period.
