

Resource Fair

2019 Oakland Midnight Basketball League

The Oakland Midnight Basketball League will operate for 8 weeks this summer as a violence reduction and positive youth development strategy. Games will take place on Friday nights from 9:00pm to 1:00am at Soldiertown, located at 31 4th Street in Oakland. In order to maximize benefit to players and community members who attend the games, we are inviting local organizations to participate in a resource fair on July 26th. We expect that most resources offered will fall into the following categories:

- Education
- Legal services (record expungement, child support assistance, etc.)
- Benefit programs
- Health, mental health, or behavioral health
- Victims services
- Housing
- Neighborhood services
