

SB1004 – TRANSITIONAL AGE YOUTH PROGRAM

APRIL 10, 2019

- Authorizes specified counties to establish a deferred entry of judgment pilot program for eligible defendants
- Eligibility:
 - 18 – 20 years of age at the time of the offense
 - Felony offense
 - Defendant pleads guilty to charge(s)
 - Suitable for the program and demonstrates an ability to benefit from services normally reserved for juvenile offenders
 - Does not have to register pursuant to Penal Code Section 290
 - Has not been convicted of an offense listed under Penal Code Sections 1192.7(c) or 667.5(c) or Welfare and Institution Code Section 707(b)

A stylized map of California is shown in a light blue color, set against a dark blue background that features a circular, globe-like pattern. The map is positioned on the right side of the slide.

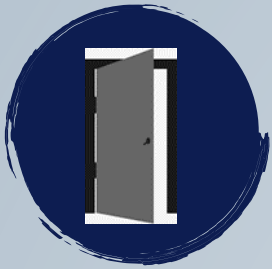

Overview SB1004

- Requires the Court to grant deferred entry of judgment if an eligible defendant consents to participation in the program
- Allows for programming/detention within juvenile hall
- Requires the Probation Department to develop a plan for re-entry services
- Successful completion of the program will result in the dismissal of charges
- While in custody, requires separation from minors in juvenile hall
- Data
 - Recidivism
- Unfunded pilot

A stylized, dark blue map of California is positioned on the right side of the slide. The map is semi-transparent, allowing the background to be visible through it. It is oriented vertically, with the top of the state at the top of the slide.

Overview SB1004

TAY: Alameda County Probation

Re-Entry

Assessment driven,
strength-based and community focused

Phase-Based

Incremental & Compounded

Individualized

Client-focused

Multi-faceted

Employment,
Education, Basic Life
Skills, Wellness and Community
Engagement

Collaborative

Multiple agencies &
disciplines

Orientation

Engagement &
Assessment

Community Re-integration

Stability & Accountability

Maintenance

Wellness &
Community
Connection

Graduation

TAY: Phases

One step at a time

ITRP

Freedom to Invent

Personal Vision/Mission Statements
Housing and Living Environment
Employment/Education
Financing the Future
Daily Life and Wellness
Pro-Social Connections

Social Emotional Learning

Opportunity to Build

Responsible Decision-Making
Self-Awareness
Self-Management
Social Awareness
Relationship Skills

Holistic Wellness

Healing Inside & Out

Promoting wellness for participants, family,
community and staff

- Assembly Bill 1390

- Will extend the age to 25
- Allow additional eligible offenses upon agreement by the local multi-disciplinary team

