

NOTICE TO VENDORS

Beginning July 1st, the new Alameda County Contract Compliance System will be introduced to monitor contract and labor compliance for County contracts through the use of a new interactive website, Elation Systems.

All vendors having contracts with the County totaling over $25,000 and which have a start date on or after July 1, 2007 should schedule a representative from their office/company, along with their subcontractors, to attend vendor training. One-hour training sessions will be held periodically in a number of locations throughout Alameda County. Utilization of the Alameda County Contract Compliance System and all training will be provided at no charge to vendors and their subcontractors participating in County contracts.

To view the training schedule please visit http://www.elationsys.com/elationsys/support\_1.htm or call Elation Systems at (510) 764-1870.
