

Geotechnical Investigations

- Fee
- Permit Application
- Site map showing borehole locations
- Letter describing the project

Contamination Investigation/Environmental Monitoring

- Fee
- Permit Application
- Site map showing borehole locations
- Letter/Site Hazard form describing the project
- General or Special Conditions may be applied depending on the County area of concern and site location

All Extraction/ Injection Wells Construction or Destruction

- Fee
- Permit Application (with all well ID or Numbers, proposed or existing)
- Site map showing locations of wells being proposed or existing with well ID or numbers, including any
- Letter/Site Hazard form describing the project
- General or Special Conditions may be applied depending on the County area of concern and site location

All Well Construction & Destruction

- Fee
- Permit Application(s) ,One permit for each well being constructed or destroyed should be submitted and clearly labeled with the well ID or number on the site map as well on the permit application.
- Site map showing proposed well location or existing well locations, including well ID's or numbers
- Letter/Site Hazard form describing the project
- Well Destruction applications should also submit a copy of the State DWR well construction reports if available as well as the original permit number or copies of the original permit issued.
- General or Special Conditions may be applied depending on the County area of concern and site location