Cherryland Resident? Yes  No

The design team for Cherryland Community Center needs your feedback. At the most recent community workshop on May 22, 2013, we asked attendees to vote and provide individual comments on the following examples of architectural character. Here is your opportunity to let us know what you think.

Step 1 Review the architectural and landscape examples on this and the following pages. Enter your top 2 choices for each category in the boxes below.

Step 2 Write additional comments in the boxes provided after each category.

Step 3 Save this document with a new file name, and email it as an attachment to: Joe.Flores@acgov.org

You can also choose to print the form and fill it out by hand. Mail to (or drop off in person at):
Office of Alameda County Supervisor Nate Miley
Eden Area District Office
C/O Cherryland Community Center Feedback
20993 Redwood Road, Castro Valley, CA 94546

Please send all responses by June 28, 2013.

Architectural Character

When considering the following aspects of a building, think about what is the best fit for Cherryland:

- Roof shape - one or two story building
- Use of glass for natural light - Indoor-outdoor relationships
- Texture of the finishes - how spaces feel
