

1820 Duration

1. NON-MANAGEMENT CLASSES

Except as otherwise provided herein, the period of probation for employees appointed to any non-management class in the classified service shall be six months except as follows:

E) Miscellaneous Classes - Full 12-month Probationary Period

Employees appointed to the following classes shall serve a full 12-month probationary period: Emergency Services Dispatcher I and Criminalist I in the Sheriff's Department; Clerk-Recorder Specialist I and Auditor Associate I in the Auditor's Agency; Human Resources Assistant I in the Human Resource Services Department; ~~Assessor's Technician I~~ Assessor's Technician in the Assessor's Office; Child Welfare Worker I and Eligibility Services Technician II in the Social Services Agency; Juvenile Institutional Officer Associate in the Probation Department and Agricultural and Standards Investigator I in the Community Development Agency.

2. MANAGEMENT CLASSES

A) The period of probation for all other employees appointed to any management-designated class in the classified service shall be twelve months except as follows:

5) Human Resource Services Department classes - Employees appointed to the following classes shall serve a full eighteen-month probationary period: Labor Relations Analyst I and Human Resource Trainee.

6\) Countywide class - Employees appointed to the following class shall serve a full twelve-month probationary period: Departmental Human Resources Officer Trainee