

Applicants Sought for Assessment Appeals Board

- Several vacancies must be filled
- Board hears appeals by Alameda County taxpayers
- Application can be obtained online

Alameda County is seeking to fill several vacancies on its Assessment Appeals Board. Created by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, the Assessment Appeals Board hears appeals by Alameda County taxpayers who disagree with the taxable value assigned to their property by the County Assessor. This value determines the amount of property taxes to be paid by the property owner.

To be considered for appointment to the Assessment Appeals Board, an applicant must have a minimum of five years' professional experience in California as a certified public accountant or public accountant, licensed real estate broker, attorney, or property appraiser accredited by a nationally recognized professional organization.

Property Appraisers are strongly encouraged to apply, but anyone with an interest in the position who meets the qualifications is welcome to apply.

Apply by completing the Boards and Commissions Application online at <http://www.acgov.org/bc/>, click on the GET INVOLVED button. Submit the completed/signed application to the member of Board of Supervisors representing your district. The mailing address is 1221 Oak Street, Suite 536, Oakland, CA 94612.

For more information, contact:

Anika Campbell-Belton, Clerk of the Board
(510) 272-6984