Pay for Success (Alameda County Justice Restoration Project)	The Alameda County Justice Restoration Project (ACJRP) is a collaborative program designed to reduce recidivism in Alameda County through innovative interventions. ACJRP is a Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC) grant funded Pay for Success project. Individuals are referred to ACJRP by the Court. Those who want to enroll and plead will receive a deferred entry of judgement, with a dismissal date instead of a sentencing date. ACJRP clients are entitled to all AB109 funded services and programs. The allocation will be distributed from the CBO portion of Realignment funds for FY 18/19 to support the services provided by LaFamilia – the lead CBO provider for ACJRP.	LaFamilia
Prison Pre-Release Planning and Case Management	Planning and support pre-release to ensure a smooth transition from prison to the community.	RFP to be Developed
Probation Client Support	Probation Client Support will assist clients with items that will support positive engagement: such as tuition, tools, vouchers; and concrete services: additional food, utilities, clothing, etc. Once the client informs the DPO of the need, then the money is distributed to the individual in the form of a gift card (i.e., food, clothing) or money is sent directly to the creditor (i.e., landlord, utilities). There also must be evidence that the individual will be able to afford their expenses moving forward; we will not fund individuals in perpetuity. Note: Some contracts provide for limited support dollars that allow providers to issue funds on behalf of the client without going through the DPO.	Clients via the DPO
Realignment Evaluation	The evaluation will provide an overview of the County's realigned population and identify associations between receipt of service and recidivism.	Resource Development Associates (RDA)
Reentry Court - PRCS	The parole re-entry court is designed to meet the needs of high risk parolees who are in violation status, with the goal of reducing recidivism and re-offense rates. The re-entry court integrates evidence based treatment practices to address substance abuse and or/mental health problems, in addition to providing wrap around social services to parolees. Restorative Justice - Community Circles	Circles of support and other Restorative Justice models/practices.	RFP to be Developed
Sex Offender Treatment	Penal Code §1203.067 requires at least a year in sex offender specific certified treatment for people on probation supervision. However, many probation clients are not in treatment due to an inability to pay. Some clients are required to participate for the duration of their probation grant, which can exceed one year. The requested funding will help to reduce barriers to treatment and address public safety by ensuring that clients that need treatment are receiving it and it will reduce the likelihood of further victimization. There are many existing sex offender providers and programs in Alameda County that are certified by the Sex Offender Management Board. Funding is going towards covering the cost of a client to attend one of these programs; it is not being spent on managing or creating a new program.	RFP to be Developed
Transition Age Youth (TAY) Services/Support	A CBO to serve as a subject-matter expert on TAY (18-25 year old) services between the adult and juvenile service system. CBO's and governmental partners need help with the youth-to-adult transition, along with communication between all parties.	RFP to be Developed
Transportation	Funding for a qualified vendor who is interested and capable of providing On-Demand Transportation Services for Probation's "Ride to Reentry" program. Transportation services shall be available twenty-four hours a day, seven days per week, for the target population of eligible users defined below. The contracted provider shall be responsible for all aspects of service and operations including but not limited to, vehicle purchase or lease (if applicable), insurance, cleaning, maintenance, staffing, permitting, compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), fueling, and reporting.	Bonafide and Roots
Trust (Set-Aside) - Indigent/Barrier Removal Fund	Fund is intended for short-term/immediate needs as individuals are applying and/or waiting for long-term services. This fund will help stabilize individuals until they are able to get connected to more permanent services: Assistance with cell phone bills to keep clients connected; Assistance to pay for post office boxes or physical addresses for clients who are homeless; Prescription/medical coverage (until Medi-Cal is obtained), birth certificate, social security card, return to work documents, Driver's License, etc.; Funds available for childcare/preschool and afterschool care; Funds to support housing needs; pay for technology (internet). The funds will need to be capped on a dollars/person basis. Individuals must be engaged in services to be eligible for the funds.	RFP to be Developed
Women's/Mothers' Services	Funding for Women's Services based upon research that indicates that services should be gender-responsive, to ensure that needs specific to women are addressed in terms of education, employment, substance use, mental health, etc.	RFP to be Developed
